Success 4 Kids Notes/Minutes

Council Treasurer Report

There has been no change in the bank balance

FY17 Showcase Summary

The Success 4 Kids Council shared the FY17 executive summary, there were 3 families, 3 children and 31 home visits conducted through the SWCC Parents as Teachers Program and 176 child 32 provided through Crisis Intervention and Advocacy Center, sexual abuse prevention programming and a total of $13,985 was expended.

FY18 Contracts

Prevent Child Abuse Iowa Fy18 contract has been received. Deb will check to see if the subcontracts to CIAC and SWCC have been drafted for the Council.

FY18 State Changes

Family support programs receiving PCA funds will be required to utilize the DAISEY reporting system that ECI currently uses. This is a change from the previous year. Additionally, PCA will go to quarterly reporting versus monthly.

FY19 Grant Planning

Stephanie and Deb sat in on the webinar regarding planning for the FY19 grant cycle. It was consensus of the group to continue with SWCC Parents as Teachers home visitation and CIAC sexual abuse prevention utilizing new curriculum Second Step. Additional ideas shared were Stewards of Children/Darkness to Light sexual abuse prevention education, and Parent Cafe. If anyone has any other ideas contact Stephanie Claussen.

Mental Health Document

It was noted that Crossroads no longer provides services in Adair County, but can be served one of the other locations, Corning, Creston or Winterset. The Adair County mental health document will be updated to reflect this change.

Parents as Teachers

Nina Utterback is the new parent educator with the Southwestern Community College Parents as Teachers program and has attended training. Currently, 5 families are in the program.

American Lung Association

Samra Hiros is the new contact for American Lung Association. She reported that clients that have Medicaid are not to be served with the Iowa Quit Line and that the respective MCO's are to handle that starting July 1, 2017. Samra shared the FY17 work plan with the group. Going forward, the agenda will now include American Lung Association to assist with the work plan for Adair County.

Early Childhood Committee

DCAT/CPPC

No update.

4 R Kids Board

The board is looking for an Adair County board member, preferably a male.

Early Childhood Services

The group reviewed the Adair County early childhood services document and noted any changes. It will be posted on the website.
